ORDER :

K. Sambrajyam, Sweeper, (Retd.), ESI Dispensary, Nallapadu, Guntur District in her representation 2nd read above has stated that in view of her physical infirmity, she applied for retirement on the grounds of medical invalidation i.e. from 15.04.2011. Since, that time her case was dealt with between Joint Director, IMS, Gunadala (2) the Superintendent, GGH, Guntur and in-charge Medical Officer, ESI Dispensary, Nallapadu ranging from 15-04-2011 to 12-10-2011 which covers about 6 months. She was informed that the compassionate appointment can not be provided to her son on the grounds that the required period of 5 years of left over service is to be reckoned from the date of issue of orders of retirement, on medical invalidation. She mentioned that the department has taken 6 months time to finalize her case on compassionate grounds which goes without saying that this is administrative delay. She has also stated that in para 3 of G.O.Ms.No.330, General Administration (Ser-A) Department-II, Dt.28.07.2001 it is stated that the cases of retirement of Medical invalidation may be examined to condone cases where there is short fall in the required 5 years of left over service if that short fall was occasioned by administrative delay.

2. She has, therefore, stated that her adopted son namely K.. Bhanu Prasad who has passed B.Com during 2008 and his date of birth is 09.05.1986. As he fulfils the conditions is necessary for appointment as Junior Assistant, he requested that he may be appointed as Junior Assistant so as to enable him to take care of her as she is crippled and feeble to move about at the present state of affairs.

3. After careful examination of the matter, Government here by permit the Director of Insurance Medical Services, AP, Hyderabad to appoint Sri K.Bhanu Prasad, adopted son of K. Sambrajyam, Sweeper, (Retired on Medical Invalidation), ESI Dispensary, Nallapadu, Guntur District on compassionate grounds on medical invalidation in relaxation of the condition of 5 years left over service as prescribed in para-15 in G.O.Ms.No.661, General Administration (Services-G) Department, Dated.23-10-2008 instructions.
